

Summer 2025 Courses Available to WashU Employees

The Master of Science programs in Applied Health Behavior Research (AHBR), Biostatistics, and Clinical Investigation at WashU Medicine are your gateway to unlocking incredible career opportunities. These programs provide powerful tools to help you elevate your professional skills, enhance job fulfillment, and achieve career goals in groundbreaking research.

The following courses are open to WashU employees for enrollment as a non-degree seeking student and are eligible for the HR Tuition Benefit.

Applied Health Behavior Research

Introduction to Qualitative Coding and Analysis

Mondays 4:00-6:30pm (Short course: 6/23/25-7/28/25)

Hybrid format, FLTC 205

Epidemiology for Clinical Research

Tuesdays 4:00-8:00pm | Hybrid format, FLTC 205

Health Disparities: Applications in Clinical Settings

Thursdays 4:30-8:30pm | Hybrid format, FLTC 204

Biostatistics

R and Python for Biomedical Sciences

Short course: 6/2/25-6/27/25 | Online format, asynchronous

Clinical Investigation

Bench Fundamentals for Translational Research

Online: 7/7/25-7/20/25 | In-person (lab): 7/21/25-7/25/25

Course descriptions: Visit the Bulletin, click on the program name, and then choose Courses. Questions? Contact Shelby Cripe (skcripe@wustl.edu).

