Eva's Excerpt

The turn of the academic year is a time of transition and new beginnings. The arrival of new residents and fellows brings fresh perspectives and enthusiasm for learning. The first few weeks are often filled with angst as they adapt to their new roles and realize the additional responsibility of their position in our organization and healthcare profession. AOE Seeking UME/GME Individuals Interested in Assessment

Great news! The Academy of Educators is becoming an Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) Hub for the Developing Faculty Competencies & Assessment course. As such, in collaboration with the ACGME and their existing hubs, we will develop and deliver an annual 2.5-to-3-day course right here at WashU to help our faculty and program leaders with assessment, direct observation, provision of feedback, writing narrative assessments, and optimizing your Clerkship Competency and Competency Attainment Committees Full story and application can be found here.
